FLORIDA INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY

BACHELOR OF PUBLIC POLICY AND SERVICE

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Do you have a passion for public service? FIU's fully online Bachelor of Public Policy and Service can prepare you for a fulfilling career in government, nonprofit organizations, or provide a solid foundation for graduate studies.

The Bachelor of Public Policy and Service prepares students for professional and academic careers in public service, nonprofit management, policy analysis, and program evaluation. Learn the factors that affect all levels of government with regard to policy development, decision-making, implementation, and assessment. Understand the intricacies of how policy affects the way people live and societies work.

The curriculum for this degree, taught by renowned faculty with real-world experience in both governmental and nonprofit arenas, is designed to help students gain the skills needed to enter or advance in the public service arena. The program is intended to produce effective managers who have a keen understanding of analytical research, budget management, policy development, and community involvement.
